HIS: 3383
A Cultural History of Hunting in North America

A study of the changing culture phenomena of Hunting in Four Hundred Years of American History– From the Navajo Hunter Tradition to John Winthrop, Daniel Boone to Theodore Roosevelt, Aldo Leopold to Bambi, Fred Bear to Tom Regan

T/R, 9:30-10:45
Dr. Hill
Bracy_Hill@baylor.edu